THE FRONTIER BARN QUILT TRAIL

OF FULTON COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA

Explore these self-guided driving tours for viewing over 100 barn quilts in picturesque Fulton County. Enjoy the quiet serenity of country life meandering through the peaceful back roads of Fulton County. Throughout history, Fulton County was once deemed to be the Frontier, due to its large population of Native Americans as well as its rural landscape. As a celebration of all of the County's vast and interesting history, as well as cheerful acknowledgement of our rural lifestyle, the Frontier Barn Quilt Trail commenced in Summer of 2014, and now encompasses over four separate driving trails with over 100 barn quilts. A detailed driving map is included on the inside of this brochure. Take a day trip or weekend and enjoy the beauty of the trail!

The Frontier Barn Quilt Trail began when a small group of local citizens gathered in June of 2014 to discuss the possibility of creating a barn quilt trail in Fulton County.

The mission of the project was to encourage community participation, celebrate our rural culture, educate youth and visitors on the value of our agricultural economy, honor the quilting tradition, help in barn preservation and create a year round attraction that inspires other community events and projects.

The Frontier Barn Quilt Trail partnered with the Fulton County Historical Society and by the end of the first year there were over 35 approved quilt blocks. As of March 2016, there were 113 approved quilt blocks and blocks in every township. Many of the quilt blocks are on barns, but some have been installed on houses, sheds, garages, outbuildings and businesses. Blocks have been painted by volunteers as well as high school students from every high school in the county.

The Frontier Barn Quilt Trail of Fulton County, PA will be constantly adding new quilt blocks so we welcome you to return again and again to experience even more beautiful barn quilts. Thanks for visiting one of the largest barn quilt trails in Pennsylvania.

Cover photo: The Acorn Barn, located at the property of Mike and Linda Crampton. Although the Acorn Barn is not located on The Frontier Barn Quilt Trail (not visible from a public road), it was however, the very first barn quilt to be placed in Fulton County, Pennsylvania.
